Caffeine and working memory

Participants were healthy adults aged 18 to 30.

Results

200 mg caffeine improved n-back accuracy compared with placebo.